

UTV Cargo Heat Shield Polaris® RZR™

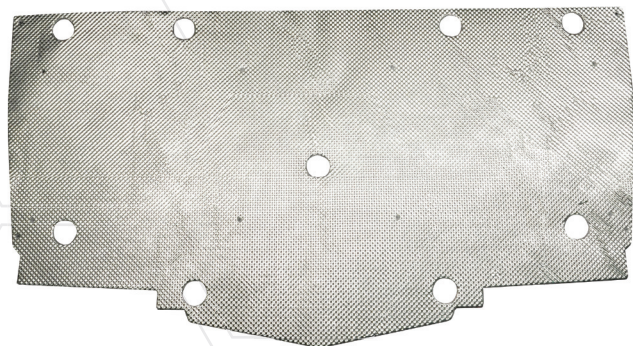

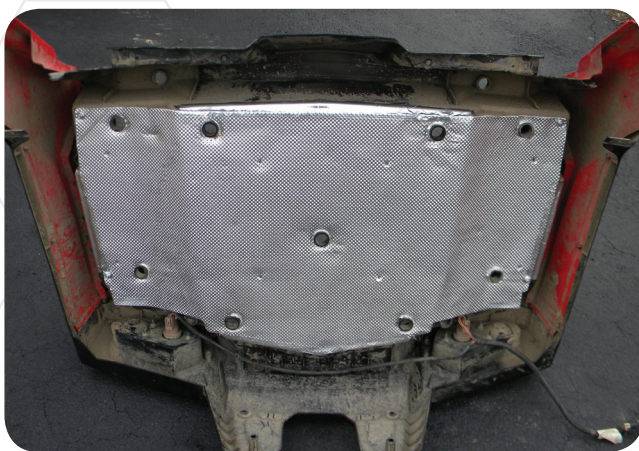

UTV Cargo Heat Shield Polaris RZR

The cargo bed on the Polaris RZR's can get pretty toasty. Especially when running in slow conditions. DEI now offers a great solution to help avoid cooking the contents of your bed. Our heat shield is made of heavy-duty 10 mil aluminum with 1/8" glass mat barrier material, pre-cut to the correct size for the RZR 800. Mounting hardware is also included to make installation a breeze.

- High performance insulation for the cargo bed
- Precision cut for easy fit
- Easy to install
